Gandhi Jayanti

“Celebrating the life and ideals of Mahatma Gandhi.”

Story / Significance:

Gandhi Jayanti, observed on 2nd October, honors the birth of Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi, the Father of the Nation. Gandhi’s philosophy of non-violence (Ahimsa) and truth (Satyagraha) inspired millions and played a pivotal role in India’s independence. His teachings of simplicity, self-reliance, and social responsibility continue to guide citizens toward ethical living and harmony.

The day is significant for promoting peace, tolerance, and civic responsibility. It is a moment to reflect on Gandhi’s values, emphasizing compassion, justice, and sustainable living.

Traditions & Customs:

People pay tribute at Raj Ghat, Gandhi’s memorial in Delhi, by offering flowers and prayers. Educational institutions organize essay competitions, seminars, and awareness campaigns on non-violence and civic duties. Communities participate in cleanliness drives, promoting Gandhi’s vision of Swachh Bharat. Gandhi Jayanti also serves as a reminder of the importance of moral courage and ethical leadership in society.
